{GOSSIP AND SHIT...}

Buena Vista pool is happening again. Jeff Phillips broke [2] ribs in Arizona off an invert. Loster Kasai got a wood sliver right threw his finger at the same contest. Midwest Melee #2 happening again in Sept. Jeff Grosso, & John Lucero are skatin for Santa Cruz. Negative Approach broke-up while on tour. And speaking of tours The Faction got some of their equipment stolen while they were on their tour. Bill Denforth is out in California skating. Dan Webster out here from England got a broken ankle while skimboarding. Marty J. & Brian Ridgeway got fired from T.W.S. do to conflicts in the staff. Void is now heavy Metal. Kevin Stabb turned Pro at the Arizona Jam. New Powell vido out in 2 weeks. Septic Death broke-up. Robo Roskopp's New model is out now, It has a unique shape and a shocking color. A new ramps up in S.J. It's 20ft. wide with 20ft of flat bottom and it's 10ft. high with a foot of vert. Amateur Skater Joe Spallicro from S.J. got Sponsored by Logan Earth Ski. Only 3 Pros showed up for the June Kona Pro/am. Al Iosi, Bill Beaueguera, & Monty Nolder. The rest of the compans boycotted the contest. Eagle Rock Ramp in L.A. is going to be the host of a jam sometime in Aug. See ya there.

Record Reviews by:

BILLY MIDOL

Septic Death 12 inch

These guys are fuckin' Fast, Pretty tight too. There are some cool studio tricks on the voice. When they do slow down its just to get to the next Fast part, get the idea.

KILLROY- Believe in the Ruins

These guys are cool. This record is great, cool songs and great mix. 2 singers make for a unique sound. They only use 1 singer live. The piano on "the screen" is killer.

SEPT Slaughterhouse 4-1984 ep

Country Punk, kinda dry, but they don't sound like anyone else I've heard.

Tales of Terror The Album

Pretty cool record from the Secho boys. Neat cover. Good production by Paul Ratt. Album drags on a little, but "hound dog" picks things up.

The Detonators: Emergency Broadcast System

This album sounds nothing like they do live. Basically they have a billion times more power live, but the album is much cleaner and easier to listen to. Nothing to special, medium pace and simple.

Gnarly Transitions

Lester Kasai, Invert

Del Mar's Keyhole is one of the best pools left in California. Its only problems are that the flat bottom is too slippery, the transitions are too drawn out, and the coping is ground down. It's 10 ft. deep, it has 5 inch tiles that are vert. There have been countless numbers of contests held there. There are a few minor kinks. This pool is good for Bio Airs, stalled inverts, and cool lip tricks. There aren't that many lines due to the fact that the entrance is so wide. When people first go there they say the pool is too slow, but after you get used to it you start to like it. Overall this pool is fun.

THE MORGAN HILL DITCH

This place is cool. It's the only ditch even close to S.J. The ditch is approximately 100ft. long and about 20ft wide. It's totally smooth. It goes from shallow to deep. It is usually not to skate during the day. It's better to skate late in the afternoon. It has some parking blocks on the top. Its only problem is the lame Gra-phitty. You can skate this place all day and it doesn't get stale.
